

Belinda Gail & Curly Musgrave

"Dusty" Roy Rogers, Jr. honored Belinda Gail & Curly Musgrave when he said they can be described as the Roy Rogers and Dale Evans of the 21st century! From Silver Dollar City to Elko's National Cowboy Poetry Gathering or Saddle Up! In Pigeon Forge, TN, this dynamic duo's beautiful musicality and delightful stage presence always leave audiences asking for encores again and again. They are truly poetry in musical motion.

No small wonder. Belinda Gail is a giving and inspirational entertainer whose solo performances are captivating, compelling and unforgettable in every sense of the word. This petite cowgirl is a delightful Western star with an extraordinary voice that adds a yodel in for good measure; plays the guitar with expertise; and, charms audiences with her whimsical, upbeat sense of humor. Belinda Gail is truly the "America's Western Sweetheart".

Curly Musgrave has been dubbed... "one of the finest voices to come down the trail in a long, long time"... "one of the most innovative and influential singer/songwriters in Western music today". Whether performing alone or with Belinda Gail, Curly is a passionate cowboy whose inspirational songs of father, family, and love of the Western way of life, uplifts the heart and soothes the soul. Always the consummate performer, Curly is the quintessential storyteller and comedian that delight audiences wherever he goes.

And lucky is the audience who see Belinda and Curly perform together! The charming duo infuses electricity, energy, enthusiasm and versatility into every performance. This is reflected in dynamic arrangements of original and traditional Western music and gospel songs. Audiences truly enjoy their lively and humorous banter on stage! Both are skilled and articulate yodelers and routinely bring audiences to their feet with harmony yodeling and songs that arouse the gamut of emotion from tears to hilarity.

Belinda Gail and Curly Musgrave have earned their place on the stage of major venues across the country. These fine artists have won critical acclaim for both their solo performances and collaborative efforts as Belinda Gail & Curly Musgrave.
